

I find great benefit in satellite radio and particularly in the traffic and weather services offered. Satellite radio prevents having to search for and find a station to get needed info, since it's stations are available everywhere. Please reject the National Association of Broadcasters' petition 04-160.
Thank you,

Bob Fant